PREVENTIVE SCREENING RECOMMENDATIONS

The right preventive care at every stage of life helps you stay healthy, avoid or delay the onset of disease, and keeps conditions you already have from becoming worse. These are general guidelines only. Your primary care provider will personalize the timing of the screenings and vaccinations you need based on many factors – talk to your primary care provider today about your preventive screenings!

MEN

20s
- Maintain healthy weight and discuss any concerns
- Blood pressure every 3 years
- Discuss cholesterol and diabetes
- STDs including HIV
- Discuss vaccinations such as HPV, tetanus, whooping cough and flu

30s
- Maintain healthy weight and discuss any concerns
- Blood pressure every 3 years
- Discuss cholesterol and diabetes
- STDs including HIV
- Discuss vaccinations such as HPV, tetanus, whooping cough and flu

40s
- Maintain healthy weight and discuss any concerns
- Blood pressure annually
- Cholesterol every 5 years
- Discuss diabetes screening
- STDs including HIV
- Discuss vaccinations such as HPV, tetanus, whooping cough and flu

50s
- Maintain healthy weight and discuss any concerns
- Blood pressure annually
- Cholesterol every 5 years
- Discuss diabetes screening
- Cancer Screenings:
  - Colon cancer
  - Lung cancer screening annually starting at age 55 (if high risk)
  - Prostate cancer screening (if patient requests or is high risk)
- STDs including HIV
- Hepatitis C screening if born between 1945-1965
- Discuss vaccinations such as pneumonia, shingles, tetanus, whooping cough and flu

60s AND OLDER
- Maintain healthy weight and discuss any concerns
- Blood pressure every year
- Cholesterol every 5 years
- Discuss diabetes screening
- Abdominal aortic aneurysm screening once between ages 65-75 (if history of tobacco use)
- Cancer screenings:
  - Colon cancer until age 75 (minimum)
  - Lung cancer screening annually until age 80 (if high risk)
  - Prostate cancer screening (if patient requests or is high risk)
- STDs including HIV
- Hepatitis C screening if born between 1945-1965
- Discuss vaccinations such as pneumonia, shingles, tetanus, whooping cough and flu

NOTES:________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________________________

www.atlanticare.org 1-888-569-1000
PREVENTIVE SCREENING RECOMMENDATIONS

The right preventive care at every stage of life helps you stay healthy, avoid or delay the onset of disease, and keeps conditions you already have from becoming worse. These are general guidelines only. Your primary care provider will personalize the timing of the screenings and vaccinations you need based on many factors – talk to your primary care provider today about your preventive screenings!

20s
- Maintain healthy weight and discuss any concerns
- Blood pressure every 3 years
- Discuss cholesterol and diabetes
- Cancer screening:
  - Pap and/or HPV (human papilloma virus) every 3-5 years
  - STDs including HIV
  - Discuss vaccinations such as HPV, tetanus, whooping cough and flu

30s
- Maintain healthy weight and discuss any concerns
- Blood pressure every 3 years
- Discuss cholesterol and diabetes
- Cancer screening: Pap and/or HPV every 3-5 years
- STDs including HIV
- Discuss vaccinations such as HPV, tetanus, whooping cough and flu

40s
- Maintain healthy weight and discuss any concerns
- Blood pressure annually
- Discuss cholesterol and diabetes
- Cancer screenings:
  - Pap and/or HPV every 3-5 years
  - Discuss mammogram
- STDs including HIV
- Discuss vaccinations such as tetanus, whooping cough and flu

50s
- Maintain healthy weight and discuss any concerns
- Blood pressure annually
- Cholesterol every 5 years
- Discuss diabetes screening
- Cancer screenings:
  - Colon cancer
  - PAP and HPV every 3-5 years
  - Mammogram every 2 years minimum
  - Lung cancer screening annually starting at age 55 (if high risk)
- STDs including HIV
- Hepatitis C screening if born between 1945-1965
- Discuss vaccinations such as pneumonia, shingles, tetanus, whooping cough and flu

60s AND OLDER
- Maintain healthy weight and discuss any concerns
- Blood pressure annually
- Cholesterol every 5 years
- Discuss diabetes screening
- Cancer screenings:
  - Colon cancer until age 75 (minimum)
  - Discuss if PAP and/or HPV screening is needed
  - Mammogram every 2 years until age 75 (minimum)
  - Lung cancer screening annually until age 80 (if high risk)
- Osteoporosis at least once
- STDs including HIV
- Hepatitis C screening if born between 1945-1965
- Discuss vaccinations such as pneumonia, shingles, tetanus, whooping cough and flu

NOTES:______________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________